

Anti-Conscription Campaign (Canterbury)

---

You are invited to attend a

Public Meeting

In The CHORAL HALL, Latimer Square

Wednesday, 14th February

At 8 pm.

PROMINENT SPEAKERS

Watch for Newspaper Advertisements

This Leaflet and Organisation for the Meeting Cost Money

Please send your Donation and offers of help to—

The ORGANISER, P.O. BOX 192.

Remembering the First World War 1914 - 1918

---

---

---

---

christchurchcitylibraries.com/ww100

The Anti-Conscription Campaign: a leaflet announcing a meeting, 1917.

Miss Mairie McMillan, Red Cross Queen. Christchurch City Libraries, CCL-Gimblett-0047.

Remembering the First World War 1914 - 1918

---

---

---

---

---

christchurchcitylibraries.com/WW100

Red Cross Queen, Baby Queen Carnival, 1916. The four entrants were all under 5 years old and were sponsored by different Heathcote groups.

Holdall with personal items. Barry O'Sullivan collection. CCL-O'Sullivan-4085-004

Remembering the First World War 1914 - 1918

---

---

---

---

christchurchcitylibraries.com/ww100

Examples of items soldiers carried with them in the First World War: Holdall, khaki cotton . James Spencer White (last unit 2nd Battalion, Canterbury Infantry Regiment).