Bringing the library to you

If you are unable to visit your local library because of illness or disability, we can provide a door-to-door library service for you. A medical certificate may be required.

- A friend or relative can select, deliver and return items on your behalf.
- Staff at your library may be able to select items for you, ready for your friend or relative to collect.
- If you have no-one available, a Red Cross courier can select and deliver items for you.

Storyline talking book service

For readers with a visual or physical disability.

- Fiction and non-fiction books recorded on tape.
- A Storyline catalogue in large print to help you select your tapes.
- Regular supply on a weekly, fortnightly or monthly basis.

Available at all libraries:

Large print – fiction and non-fiction books for those unable to read normal print easily.

Talking books – fiction and non-fiction books recorded on tape.

Captioned videos – videos with sub-titles for people with a hearing disability (held at Central City Library but available at all libraries on request).

For further information please contact:
Outreach & Special Needs Service,
phone 389 0753, or ask at your local library.
