The image shows a book cover with a complex marbled paper pattern. The pattern consists of irregular, organic shapes in shades of grey, black, and white, resembling stone or biological cells. A central white label with a black border contains handwritten text in cursive. The text is arranged in several lines, providing dates and locations for two different periods.

The conditions on which this family should be sent out were settled before the receipt of the directions to give free passages to single women, the Cash p^o covers the cost of Mrs Burgess' passage £14 - and that of her son £8.10. - The Promissory Notes were taken as had been arranged, but they are of little value, being signed only by women, and under the circumstances the Govt will not, I imagine, claim upon them -
