

BE STRONG—PLAY THE MAN.

Regimental Institute,

28 August 1914

Dear Hazel,

I forgot to tell you that the camp will be open to visitors tomorrow afternoon. There is a football match, which prevents our getting leave, but we will be free all the afternoon, and you might be able to come and see me. I am writing the same to Mother, and she wants to meet you, so it might be a good chance. As for tomorrow evening, I don't know what will be doing, but perhaps you will be at home in the evening, if you can't come in the afternoon. Excuse haste - we are just falling in for a route march -

Yours truly
Becil.
