CASHEL ST. TO LICHFIELD ST.

WE have much pleasure in intimating to our Shareholders, Customers, and the Public generally, that the Extensive Alterations and Additions to our Warehouse are now completed. These comprise a Large Well-lighted and Handsomely Finished Structure, at the end of what were formerly our Crockery and Ironmongery Departments.

THE RAPID GROWTH OF OUR BUSINESS

During the past few years, necessitates the keeping of an ENORMOUS STOCK, the Re-arrangement of our Departments, and further accommodation for Crockery, Glassware, China, and Domestic Ironmongery, which in future will be displayed in a portion of this New Extension in Lichfield Street.

THE ALTERATIONS NOW MADE

Had become absolutely necessary for the proper introduction of a Branch of the Business, which pressure of space had prevented developing, and which will shortly occupy the major portion of these extensive additions, viz.:—HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE OF EVERY DESCRIPTION, from the ordinary Kitchen Chair to the Handsomest Drawing-room and Dining-room Suites.

THE PUBLIC ARE NOW ABLE to pass through the D. I. C. Warehouse, which extends right through from Cashel Street to Lichfield Street, thus making an

ARCADE EQUAL to the FINEST EMPORIUMS
IN THE AUSTRALASIAN COLONIES.

Standing at the Entrance fronting either Street, the Visitor to the Premises will behold

A Vista of Useful and Beautiful Goods

350 FEET THROUGH.

It will be our business henceforth, as in the past, to merit the patronage which has resulted in the development of so large a concern, and our Business Mottos are:—

“Small Profits,” “Large Turnover,” “Best Quality of Goods,” and “Courtesy to All.”

All the Latest and Most Fashionable Goods are kept in every Department, the Result of Most Careful Selection in Home Markets by Buyers of Large Local Experience.
